Consultation
UPDATE #1

This is an important moment for North America and for our Movement. We are so thankful you are setting aside valuable time to attend Consultation on Conscience 2017 and joining us in the pursuit of social justice. Together, we will defend and preserve the values we hold most dear—inclusion, compassion and justice.

Over the next few weeks, you will receive several emails intended to prepare you for Consultation on Conscience 2017. Today's email, the first in the series, contains important logistical information for your stay in Washington, DC.

Hotel
Consultation on Conscience will be held at the Renaissance Arlington Capital View Hotel located at 2800 South Potomac Avenue, Arlington VA 22202.

We are expecting record-breaking attendance at this year's Consultation on Conscience and the hotel is filling up quickly! We encourage you to book your room as soon as possible.For more information about booking a hotel room, please visit our hotel information page.

Schedule and Travel
Consultation on Conscience 2017 takes place from April 30- May 2, 2017. Registration will open on Sunday, April 30 at 11:00am, followed by scheduled programming at 1:00pm. The schedule outline is available here.

If you plan to join us for Capitol meetings on Tuesday, please plan to leave Capitol Hill no earlier than 4:00pm EST. If you are unable to join us for these visits, programming will conclude at 12:00pm. For more information on schedule and travel, please visit our website.

The Tent
We are excited to announce the launch of the Consultation on Conscience 2017 Tent Group. The Tent is the Reform Movement's online communication and collaboration platform for lay and professional leaders. This is a great place to connect with other Consultation attendees - to share ideas, build your network, or send out a roommate request. We will use this group to share logistical and speaker announcements as we approach April 30.
